

“E” Book Project Prize Program

Read Carefully: The “E” Book Project prize program is a free service offered to provide sales incentives and rewards for participating schools and youth programs. This is a representation of the 2007 program only. The 2008 program is a work in progress. 2008 prize offerings may vary.

Prizes are cumulative and inclusive. For example, any child who sold 10 books receives ALL of the one, five and ten book prize offerings, but one time only. Asterisks below signify prizes that parents and teachers were eligible to earn. Supplies of prize certificates are ample, however supplies are also limited and are distributed on a first come, first serve basis.
